

Privacy statement – E.S.V.V. Pusphaira

This is the privacy statement of Eindhovense Studenten Voetbalvereniging Pusphaira, located at Onze Lieve Vrouwestraat 1, 5612 AW Eindhoven, registered in the commercial register of the Dutch Chamber of Commerce under number 40236635 in Eindhoven, hereinafter referred to as: "the Association".

Consciously or unconsciously you share personal data with us. We think it is important that your personal data is handled with care. That is why we explain in this statement why and how we handle your personal data and what rights you have. Remember that your data always remains your property. If you have any questions as a result of reading this statement, please do not hesitate to send your question by e-mail to: bestuur@pusphaira.nl.

1 Who has access to your data?

The board of Pusphaira (hereafter: board) has access to all data you provide the Association with on the start of your membership. Note that the board changes members every year and this access is passed to consecutive boards. Former board members do not have access to your data. The current secretary will act as the data controller. Apart from the board no one will have access to your data. The only exception to this rule is the transition period of the boards.

3 Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that is sent along with the pages of a website and stored by the browser on your computer, tablet or mobile phone. We use cookies to offer you more service when visiting our websites, which makes it easier to use. Cookies ensure, for example, that you can remain logged in to a website or that your preferences, such as location and language settings, are remembered. Thanks to cookies, we can see how often our websites - and which pages - are viewed by visitors.

You must first give permission to place certain cookies before these cookies can be used. This permission is not necessary if and insofar as it concerns technically necessary (functional) cookies and analytical cookies, within the meaning of the applicable legislation, such as article 11.7a paragraph 3 of the Telecommunications Act and the ePrivacy Regulation. You can always withdraw your consent to cookies by changing your internet settings. More information about enabling, disabling and deleting cookies can be found in the Help function of your browser.

4 Provision of personal data to third parties

Without your permission, the Association will only provide your personal data to third parties if this is necessary for the execution of the Agreement that the Association has with you, unless the Association is legally obliged to provide your personal data to these third parties. In the table at the beginning of the privacy statement you will find an overview of the situations in which personal data is provided to third parties.

5 Inspection, correction and deletion of personal data

You have the right to request the Association to inspect your personal data (unless the Association is not obliged to provide this access under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)) and to have your data supplemented, deleted or protected. You must identify yourself with such a request by e-mail. Make sure to specify the data involved in your request. Upon receiving such a request, the Association will forward this deletion to all other organizations that have received the relevant data from the Association if you so wish.

6 Security of Personal Data

The Association takes appropriate measures to protect your personal data against loss, unauthorized access, publication and unlawful processing. For example, we ensure that only the necessary persons have access to your data, that access to personal data is protected and that our security measures are regularly checked.

7 Links to other websites

The website may contain links to other websites. This Privacy Statement applies only to the websites of the Association. Other websites may have their own privacy policies. The Association advises you to always consult the relevant privacy statements of those websites before using other websites.

8 Amendments to the Privacy Policy

The Association adjusts its privacy policy from time to time to keep it up to date. The most recent version of our Privacy Statement will always be included on the websites. The Association therefore recommends that you consult the Privacy Statement regularly. In the event of important changes, the Association will make every effort to inform you by e-mail and via the websites.

9 Contact details

If you have any questions about the processing of your personal data or if you want to request the Association to view, correct and / or delete your personal data, please contact us via the contact details below:

10 Complaint about the processing of your personal data

Of course we are also happy to help you if you have a complaint about the processing of your personal data. Under the GDPR, you also have the right to file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority about our processing of your personal data. You can contact the Dutch Data Protection Authority (Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens) for this.
